

Brian Murray, '03 is an attorney with Angelini, Mills, Woods & Ori Law where he represents individuals and families in personal injury and workers' compensation lawsuits. Since 2014, he has been an executive officer on the Notre Dame College Prep Alumni Association's Board of Directors. In 2017, he was elected president.

During his time at NDCP, Brian was a football player and a leader. As a junior, Brian scored a touchdown against St. Pat's after our starting quarterback was injured. As a senior, Brian was a starting corner back and played on every single special teams unit on a team that played 13 games and finished with a winning record. He was awarded with the Willet Program Player award for his commitment to the team.

In the classroom, Brian was a honors student. He competed on behalf of NDCP in the economics challenge program, specializing in importation/exportation. After school hours, he was a member of Father Richard Conyers' work program, performing maintenance in and around the school.

Besides his time at NDCP, Brian earned his bachelor's degree from Illinois State University in 2007. Thereafter, he went to law school at John Marshall Law School in Chicago, where he earned his Juris Doctor in 2010. After passing the bar in 2010, Brian has spent his entire career with the Angelini firm where he has amassed several million dollars in verdicts and settlement for his clients.

Brian is a lifelong member of the Immaculate Conception parish, where he helped coach football for several years after graduating from law school. His brother, John, was a member of the class of 1998.
